☞ This is truly the "age of progress," and the American people are, beyond doubt, far ahead of all others. This is clearly demonstrated by the Sewing Machine—which is, strictly speaking, an American invention.

In this branch of manufacture, the EMPIRE SEWING MACHINE CO., office 616 Broadway, New York City, stands pre-eminent. Their "Improved Manufacturing Machine" has no rival. It is built on sound mechanical principles—is simple in construction—easily understood, and not liable to get out of order.

Its sewing qualities, particularly on cloth and leather, cannot be equaled; and as such we recommend it to our friends and the public generally.

☞ A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. FROM CAMP MEAGHER.

The Recent Massacre—The Parties and Their Purpose—The Indians, Their numbers and Movements—Surrounded—The Ride for Life—Two Killed and Two Escape—"Come on Boys"—Gulches Discovered.

The following correspondence appears in an extra of the Montana Post, of the 29th ult.:

On the morning of the 13th of August, Mr. A. F. Weston, Wm. Weston (his son) from Virginia, and Thos. (Doc.) Mann, from Helena, started from our camp on a prospecting trip to Boulder, Clearwater, etc. They had with them three pack animals and were well armed. Everything went well up to the morning of the 24th. On the evening of the 23d, they met a man named Frank Hodges, born in Washington County, Virginia, who was coming from Fort Smith. He was alone, destitute of clothing, and had lived for nine days on wild cherries, and was very near dead, having completely given out. He had driven bulls for Russell's train, carrying government supplies to Fort Smith, and started on his dangerous journey alone.

On the 24th, the above named parties moved about four miles up the Stillwater to prospect some bars. When they arrived there, after unsaddleing and taking the packs off their animals, they observed on a little rise on the other side of the river about ten or fifteen men, who seemed to be reconnoitering. In about ten minutes they saw ten or fifteen more some distance lower down the creek, who were commencing to cross. Dr. Mann, who was in command of the party then ordered them to saddle and mount. By that time it was apparent that the Indians, for such they were, were trying to surround them. The party mounted and moved off briskly, when they found themselves completely surrounded, but, nothing daunted, they spurred on, broke through the Indian line and ran for it, leaving their packs behind. Dr. Mann had given his saddle and horse to the pilgrim and rode one of the pack animals bare backed. The Indians kept increasing in numbers till there were about 200 of them, yelling and firing arrows and guns all the time. Very shortly Mr. Hodges was seen to fall from his horse, whether dead or wounded could not be seen, but a party of Indians immediately gathered around him, seemingly shooting at him and beating him. Our party still kept on the run, with Indians following, when Mr. A. F. Weston shared the same fate as Mr. Hodges. Dr. Mann gave them the contents of his carbine and mannaged to kill one big fellow.

After following Mr. Mann and young Weston about eighteen miles, the Indians abandoned the chase, finding that their horses were inferior. This is Dr. Mann's tale, who is just in, having been on horseback since yerterday morning, and having had nothing but wild cherries to eat. What do our Indian Commissioners say to this? The poor Indian ought to have some presents and annuities for this brave act—such as guns, lead, powder and blankets. Let the boys who read this come on at once and join our little band of volunteers, so that we may go forth at once and see whether we are going to be master or the Indians. Dr. Mann reports having struck several gulches where he obtained from eight to ten cents to the pan, and says the whole country down there looks like an excellent mining country. Therefore let us rally at once and clean the red skins out. I must close, as the messenger is about leaving. With best respects, I am yours truly,

ARGENT.

Camp T. F. Meagher, August 25, 1867.

THE NEW CITY OF CHEYENNE.

The Union Pacific Railroad is gradually reaching a point where immense mineral resources will soon begin to be developed. I do not speak of gold and silver, but of iron and coal. Not far beyond Cheyenne appear the rich deposits of the mineral of which I have spoken. A spirit of speculation is already springing up. There is competition in town lots in that quarter, and it will not be long before the new city will be in full blast. It is one hundred miles from Denver, and will, when the railroad reaches it, be the point from whence the stages will start for the principal cities of Colorado. Near Cheyenne, too, or at that place, will be located the large manufacturing works of the company. They will smelt their own iron ores with their own coal, and make the rails which will be laid in the vicinity of Salt Lake City. Furnaces, rolling mills, and all the paraphernalia of [illegible] works, will be collected there.—Cor. Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, THE CAPITAL, MOVING WEST.

Our cotemporary is estatic over the prospect of the national capitol moving out west, and intimates that it will not find a resting place until it reaches Zion. He knows what he is talking about—he "knows it." But won't it be a pretty kettle of fish to have the corrupt Gentile Congress, with its corrupt and dishonest members, and the corrupt wordlings, both men and women, that will accompany it, come among the Saints. We thought it would be the last thing to be desired. Oh! but the Telgraph is a consistent sheet!

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE".]

St. Petersburg, Sept 1.

The visit of Admiral Farragut to this city, which has been a series of ovations, has terminated. The American squadron sailed from Cronstadt today. The Quaker City arrived from Crimea on Tuesday. The excursionists were received by the Emperor and Empress of Russia.

Columbus, Ga., 31.

A large Conservative meeting to-day was addressed by colored speakers The resolutions demand enfranchisement of all whites and declare the right of negroes to hold office. A demonstration was made by the Radical blacks at night to mob the colored speakers.

Chicago, 1.

The Tribune's special says, the President was again applied to for Grant and Stanton's letter. He replied. if Grant wants it published, let him publish it himself. I did not ask him for it.

Nine regular surgeons died of the yellow fever and cholera in the west and south within a month. Sickles and Grant's correspondence will appear to-morrow. The friends of the President say the document will destroy Sickles in the eyes of all law-abiding people, but no doubt it will contain only a part of the official records in the case. Concerning the story that Seward is to be retained in the Cabinet on account of negotiations for British Columbia, it is known that no communications on that subject has passed between Seward and the Minister for several months.

Washington, 1.

Grant's order prohibiting the appointment of persons removed from civil office. It is considered merely as a notice in advance that he would disapprove such appointments. He does not make a new issue between himself and the President. Good authority exists for the assertion that no difficulty has occurred on this subject.

Buffalo, 1.

A destructive fire on Saturday night burned the Buffalo steam engine works and several other brass and iron works and a tool factory, etc. Loss, $150,000. Several hundred men were thrown out of employment.

Chicago, 2.

The Times Omaha special says Spotted Tail's band of Sioux, numbering 2,000, have gone towards the Smoky Hill, and will probably strike the southern branch of the Pacific railroad soon. Hostile tribes around Fort Phil. Kearney, led by three of the greatest and most warlike chiefs living, mean war to the death.

The Times Washington special says, Canby left Washington to assume the new command. Senator Cameron is in this city and is a constant visitor at the War Department. He avows himself for impeachment. The returns from Internal Revenue shows a falling off in the last two months $15,000,000, compared with the same period last year.

Washington, 2.

The Internal Revenue bureau has decided that brandy made from cider or pure grape were to be taxed the same as if distilled from apples or grapes directly. Freight will not be allowed to be deducted from the place of manufacture to place of delivery.

Grant has ordered the discharge of half the force of paymasters in the girls department. It is in contemplation that the official documents will be published, which will throw some light on the Indian treaties. Letters from Grant to Hancock and others, written some time ago, show that the Indians are bent on war and had no honest intention of keeping peace with the settlers. The Indians ordered the soldiers to stop cutting wood and made various threats that evinced a determination not to permit the construction of the railroad. Hancock's testimony before the Indian Commissioners express a decided opinion that a serious war exists, and if the troops are removed, not a white man could remain in Colorado. The great higways to the Pacific would be closed. The Indians are amply provided with the best modern weapons, and even use field glasses. The number of hostile Indians between Arkansas and Platte rivers is from 1,500 to 2,000.

New York, 2.

A World special says, notwithstanding Grant's habitual reticence, an officer who has daily intercourse with him, says, he expresses himself privately against unqualified negro suffrage. Leading Radicals corroborate this fact, and declare they won't take him for President unless he comes out square on this question.

The Times special says, Sickles issued an order to postpone the collection of debts by the action of the State courts. His district order was generally evaded by transferring debts from citizens of Carolina to citizens of other States, thus throwing the cases into the jurisdiction of the Federal courts. Order No. 10 forbade the execution of judgments thus obtained.

The Herald has dates from Rio to August 1st: the Brazilian forces abandoned their old position and embarked on board a fleet, preparatory to forming a junction with Baron De Herril on the Upper Panama. The Parauguayans must have been met on the way having fortified several positions, some of which are said to be very strong. Five Spaniards were arrested yesterday, who are suspected to be the men who robbed Mexico of $200,000.

Washington, 2.

The Treasury Department issued a warrant of four millions three hundred and seventeen thousand dollars in coin, to pay the interest on 10-40's to Sept. 1st. The Treasury Department received a dispatch from Galveston, that the yellow fever there was fatal beyond a precedent. Of 26 officers connected with the Custom House, only three are fit for duty. The remainder are sick or dead. The Department issued orders for the removal of the Custom House to a point further down the Island and outside the city limits, which is said to be free from the epidemic.

New York, 2.

The Chancey brings Panama advices to the 23d. A plot for a revolution favorable to Mosquera was discovered. The leaders were arrested. Two Capuchins monks have been preaching in Chattenaugo in San Salvador, a place formerly noted for its laxity of morals, and induced six hundred couples to get married. Nine thousand persons partook of the Lord's supper. Cholera is dyingout in Nicaragua, but is still raging in some districts.

A furious storm at Valparaiso, June 27th, has done much damage to ships and dwellings. A bark was wrecked and ten lives lost

New York, 2.

It is supposed that the Mexican robbers will be discharged, as the property found in their possession proved to be copper and not gold.

The Herald special says, a reference is reported of the forthcoming amnesty proclamation. Those supposed to know something of the President's intentions say a pardon will be issued to all except those guilty of piracy and cruel treatment to Union soldiers. This amnesty restores parties to all their civil rights, except those taken away by the acts of Congress.

Memphis, 2.

The Memphis and Ohio railroad paid the interest due the State of Tennessee. The road has been relieved by Governor Brownlow

Chicago, 2.

The Rock Island and Pacific railroad is completed to Desmoins, Iowa. The natives are much rejoiced.

Aaron Jones is slowly recovering, though he suffers severely, and is much humiliated over his defeat. He says McCool whipped him easily and that his fighting days are over.

Boston, 2.

In the suit of Charles Burrell against the City of Boston, commenced in the United States Circuit Court, Burrell claims about a million of principal and interest for work during the war.

London, 2.

The Foreign Office issued a blue book, containing documents which had been filed in the Alabama case and the correspondence between the two governments for the settlement of claims. The latest is a dispatch which shows what progress had been made in the controversy, and the state and condition on which England is willing to attempt a formal settlement. Lord Stanley informs Minister Bruce that he is willing to submit the American claims to a commission of arbitration of claims of British subjects for losses during the late war are likewise to be submitted to the same commission.

The Porte has addressed a circular note to its Ministers in foreign courts, announcing that the Candian war is brought to a close. A general amnesty is granted to the insurgents. The same note promises many reforms will be introduced in the laws and administration of the Island.

New York, 2.

The steamer City of Boston from Manhattan has arrived. The harvest is nearly finished in France; quality good, but quantity hardly enough for a year's consumption. The Austrian ambassador at Rome had been instructed energetically to demand certain concessions in reference to the concordat. The Viceroy has gone to Baltimore to remain till October. Two hundred Liberals had been expelled from Barcelona. The Emperor of Austria had contributed 100,000 florins towards building the Frankfort Cathedral. The salt monopoly is abolished in Prussia. It is reported from Berlin, that the government is more than ever determined not to yield to the demands of Denmark in respect to North Schleswig. The Milan Gazette estimates that Garibaldi's force is five thousand. The British Reform Legion resolved to maintain its organization, calling on the people in use of the rate promoting elections in the next parliament. Members are to be pledged in advance, to the Liberal principles. The leading feature of the programme will be the the agitation to obtain the voters the protection of the ballot box.

St. Louis, 2.

The Radical clubs are making arrangements to give Sheridan a public reception upon his arrival here, and the colored people will be allowed to participate.

A Washington dispatch says, it has been ordered to release all the Fenian arms seized in June, '66.

Richmond, 2.

The applications for bankruptcy in Virginia during the past week, exceeds the total number made since the bankrupt law passed.

Chicago, 3.

The Times special says, the diplomatic corps has manifested a deep interest in the recent policy of the administration in removing commanders, in the difference between the President and Grant; also in the rumors in relation to impending Cabinet changes. All published correspondence on these subjects has been transmitted to the three principal governments, with the comments of such journals as are believed to represent the opinions of the country. The Postmaster-General will issue instructions to-morrow in relation to the transmission of the mails from San Francisco to Honolulu, by the new line.

Correspondence of the Vedette.

Cheyenne City, Aug. 27, 1867.

EDITOR VEDETTE:—Sir:—This city is located on Crow Creek, eighteen miles from the eastern base of the Black Hills, one hundred miles from Denver City, Colorado; forty miles from Laporte; and twenty miles from Cheyenne Pass. The advantages of this point are very promising. A large military post is now being built within three miles of the city, which will accommodate sixteen hundred men. This will be the general depot of Government supplies for a long time to come. The Government will expend during the coming year four million dollars. The Railroad Company will expend as much more this fall and winter. This may seem to you an exaggeration, but I am authorized to make this statement by men holding the highest position under the Government as well as the Railroad Company. Lots were offered for sale three weeks ago, and some two thousand have already been disposed of. One hundred good, substantial buildings are already up, and as many more are in course of erection. Within a radius of ten miles, there are upwards of three thousand men employed by the Railroad Company. The number of people in the town proper is about one thousand. We have a city government moving on smoothly. No disturbance, so far, so common to new towns. Capitalists from the largest Eastern cities have invested, with a view of opening business. Construction trains are running within sixty miles of this point and expect to reach here by October 1st Parties are at work on the grade seventy-five miles west. Most all the desirable town lots are already disposed of to parties who will improve them. The Railroad company reserve alternate lots; the original prices, owing to location, range from $200 to $600. Lots have advanced fifty per cent. in the hands of the first purchasers. No finer country in the world for stock; it can be wintered along the base of the hills without being fed. Hay will be abundant this winter.

We are north of Laporte, a small town situated on the Cache La Poudre, through which the coaches of Wells, Fargo & Co. pass en route to Denver and Salt Lake. Yesterday the agent of the express company came in with the first coach. This place is in direct communication with the outside world. The Railroad Telegraph will reach here in a few days. There will also be a line running from Laporte by the Western Union Telegraph Company. The time will be short when we will have all the advantages of the railroad, mail and telegraph. These three institutions are making wonderful changes. They are revolutionizing, as well as vitalizing the Great West.

You ask about terms on which lots are sold. Terms, cash; but the company will sell for one-third cash, balance in one and two years, with 10 per cent. per annum added. We acknowledge the receipt of the VEDETTE with advertisement. Have given you these items hurriedly, all of which you are at liberty to use. I believe I have exaggerated nothing.

Yours Truly,
GLENN & TALPEY.

PETTY THEFT.—Whilst Mr. P. L. Shoaff was en route from Memphis to St Louis, on one of the regular packets, some person entered his state-room when he was asleep, and examined his pockets. Fortunately he had deposited his pocket book with the clerk, and the thief got very poor picking—about two or three dollars in greenbacks, twenty-five cents in silver and a cork screw, the last two being mementoes of California, and which he prized very highly. The man who would rob an editor of a newspaper deserves no more sleep in future, and we hope his dreams hereafter may be of a nightmare character.—Peoria Democrat, 20th ult.

THE attested dying words of Stonewall Jackson were, "Let us cross over the river and rest under the shade of the trees." Beautiful—were they not? Shows that he considered himself on the wrong side of the creek.—Ex.

Correspondence of the Vedette.

Palmyra, N. Y., Aug. 17. 1867.
Editor UNION VEDETTE, Great Salt Lake City, U. T.:

Dear Sir:—I am thankful for the VEDETTE of August 1st, and also for its criticism of the "prospectus" of my forthcoming Mormon history. I fully agree with you in the sentiments you express.

The prospectus you quote is not an emanation from the author of the book, though it indicates something of its purport; it is an editorial of the Troy Times. If it implies an "acrimonious tone," or a "sensational" design, very likely such characterization will not be borne out by the reading of the work itself.

The title adopted is, "Mormonism: Its Origin, Rise and Progress. Biography of its Founders, and History of Church of Latter Day Saints. Personal remembrances and historical collections hitherto unwritten." It will be published by D. Appleton & Co., N. Y., in September—302 pages, duodecimo.

The plan is a truthful, candid, authentic history, dating from the beginning of the Mormon invention, and chronologically tracing the new sect from its starting-point to its present proportions.

I shall take the liberty to send you the first copy of the book that comes to hand, either by express or mail, when I shall be glad to have you pay your "respects to its merits," or demerits, in your own discretion!

In the meantime, if you shall be entirely willing to do so, it would please me to see a further notice in the VEDETTE—say a quotation of the title page, with some reference to the announced design and plan of the history. The writer was well acquainted with Smith, the first prophet, from his boyhood here in Palmyra—had the chief charge of the printing of the original "Book of Mormon" from the MSS., read the proofs, and knew all the principal actors in the whole affair from the commencement.

Very respectfully,
P. TUCKER.

NEARLY HELL!

A correspondent of the last Moutana Post gives an account of some parties who went to the lakes at the head of Yellowstone river and tells what they saw there. Among other sights and smells was this one:

"A portion of the Bear Gulch stampeders have returned. They have been to the Lake at the head of Yellowstone and report the greatest wonder of the age. For eight days they traveled through a volcanic country emitting blue flumes, living streams of molten brimstone, and almost every variety of minerals known to chemists. The appearance of the country was smooth and rolling, with long level plains intervening. On the summits of these rolling mounds were craters from four to eight feet in diameter; and everywhere on the level plains, dotting it like prairie dog holes, were smaller ones, from four to six inches and up wards. The steam and blaze was constantly discharging from these subterranean channels in regular revolutions or exhaustions, like the boilers of our steamboats, and gave the same roaring, whistling sound. As far as the eye could trace, this motion was observed. They were fearful to ascend to the craters lest the thin crust should give way and swallow them. Mr. Hubbel, (one of the party,) who has visited this region before, ventured to approach one of the smaller ones. As he neared its mouth his feet broke through and the blue flame and smoke gushed forth, enveloping him. Dropping upon his body, he crawled to within a couple of feet of the crater and saw that the crust around its edge was thin like a wafer. Lighting a match he extended it to the mouth and instantly it was on fire. The hollow ground resounded beneath their feet as they traveled on, and every moment it seemed liable to break through and bury them in its fiery vaults. The atmosphere was intensely suffocating, and they report that life could not long be sustained there. Not a living thing, bird or beast, was seen in the vicinity. The prospectors have given it the significant name—"Hell!" They declare they have been to that "bad place," and even seen the "Devil's horns;" but through the interposition of Providence (not to speak profanely) their "souls have been delivered," and they emphatically aver, if a "straight and narrow" course during their sojourn on the Yellowstone will save them, they will never go there again.

INCREASE OF MORMONISM.—It is said that Mormon immigration into this country will be greater this year than ever. The Book of Mormon has been translated into a dozen languages. They publish a large number of periodicals abroad in many languages, and their missionary activity is unabated, extending even to Ireland. Their best success has ben among the most northern nations of Europe. If left to go on for another twenty years, they will number a million or more.—Ex.

WELL PUT.—Josh Billings says: "Give the devil his due" sounds well enough in a proverb, but my friends, what will become uv me and you if this arrangement is carried out?

THE Superintendent of Colt's factory in Hartford, has presented Mrs. Ingalls, a Baptist missionary to India, with a navy revolver.

CHEYENNE ITEMS.—We have heard a rumor that coal has been discovered within fifteen miles of Cheyenne. How correct the report may be we cannot tell.—Denver News, August 26.

The first through coach from Cheyenne arrived at six o'clock this morning. We also understand that Wells, Fargo & Co. will deliver the mails at Fort Davy Russell semi-weekly, free of charge, until a mail route is established. As there is no postoffice at Cheyenne, it will be a convenience for business men to know that the express envelopes of Wells, Fargo & Co. can be had at Cheyenne and Denver, and that their letters can come through by express until a postoffice is established. —Ibid August 28.

ELOPEMENT.—His honor, Bob Dempsey, at Big Hole Station, raised a pretty little half-breed squaw. Jim Crawford married her last winter. Jim was a good husband. He went to Gallatin not long since to labor that the wherewith might be provided for himself and family. Dave Ricker lived at Big Hole. He is a very immortal young man. On Monday night he appropriated the pretty little half-breed and departed for Salt Lake. James knoweth not of his loss, and laboreth diligently in the Gallatin while the envious David goeth unhindered toward the City of the Saints.—Montana Post, 29th ult.

A MAN was prostrated by sun stroke the other day in the streets of Chicago, when a physician passing, he was appealed to for his medical attendance. He refused to aid the sufferer unless he first received his fee, which, nobody paying, he passed on. The man soon after died.

At Fort Bridger, Utah Ter.

Office Acting Commissary of Subsistence,
Fort Bridger, U. T., September 1, 1867.

SEALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received at the office of the A. C. S. at Camp Douglas, Utah until 12 o'clock M., Saturday, September 14, 1867, for furnishing FRESH BEEF, from the block, to the troops at Fort Bridger, Utah.

Delivery to commence in the month of October, 1867, the A. C. S. giving the CONTRACTOR two weeks notice of the day on which he will be required to enter upon the discharge of his contract. The contract to continue in force until September 13, 1868.

FELL DEAD.—As the driver of a ne was speeding along 2d South street esterday, one of the horses attached o it, suddenly reared up and then fell own dead.

HEARD FROM.—P. L. Shoaff, proprietor of the VEDETTE, was in St. Louis n the 17th of August; was to start rom there for Utah, via New York and an Francisco, on the 20th ult.

STRATMAN AGAIN.—Again we acknowledge the receipt of a large bundle of pictorials and Eastern magazines. We are much "obleeged" for such marks of attention to Major Jack, the enterprising newsdealer at San Francisco.

READ IT.—The attention of all persons interested is directed to the letter of Messrs. Glenn & Talpey from Cheyenne City, to the editor of the VEDETTE. We are assured by Gen. Dodge that anything these gentlemen state in relation to that place can be relied on as correct.

THE wife of Hon. Benjamin Wood was found dead in her bed on Saturday morning, at her residence near Manhasset, L. I.—Philadelphia Ledger, Aug. 19th.

We believe she was the wife of S. G. Rosenbaum of Idaho City at one time; was divorced from him and married Ben. Wood.

CALIFORNIA ELECTION. — Today the sovereigns in the Golden State hold an election for State officers and members of Congress. The campaign was a warm one, but it looks to us at this distance, that the Union nominees will make a clean sweep; although it is possible that Haight may beat Gorham, and Gelwicks may beat McCarthy. We think it unlikely, however.

THAT NEW BOOK.—We give publicity to a letter from P. Tucker in relation to his new book on Mormonism. We are glad to learn from him that it is not gotten up in the style we apprehended. If he is the original printer of the Book of Mormon, knows all about these fellows that have become disgustingly rich and powerful in preaching that gospel, it will be interesting to know all the facts—naked, substantial facts. That is what the enquiring mind wants, not the sky blue coloring that too often takes the place of a round, unvarnished tale. We will notice the work at length when it arrives, and it is possible that we, too, may "know it!"

ROBBED AND PLUNDERED.—The Peoria National Democrat relates, "as how" the proprietor of the VEDETTE, P. L. Shoaff, fell into the hands of the Philistines on his way up the river from Memphis to St. Louis, and was relieved of a couple of dollars in greenbacks, twenty-five cents in coin, and a cork screw, by some nocturnal, nefarious, light-fingered chap. It is an unpardonable offence in a pickpocket, even, to suspect a newspaper man as having money; and it is equally as grave a charge for an editor traveling to have money—they should always circulate on their "shape" or "style." But the intimation that he also possessed a cork screw! What for? What does an editor want with a cork screw? There is a stubborn, dark intimation in that part of the story of his griefs that awaits solution. A cork screw, hey?

OUR Western military posts in 1864 cost the Government $25,000,000, and in 1865 $37,000,000, of which last sum the pay of the troops took only $1,642,000, while the subsistence department swallowed up $31,523,880, and the quartermaster's $23,374,209. It is stated that $150,000,000 will scarcely meet the expenses of the past year.

Wit and Wisdom.

A Memphis barber advertises that he employs only "conservative" darkies in his establishment.

An Irishman remarked of a lady who had been very kind to him, "Bedad, she's a perfect gintleman."

It is believed that the cane brakes of the South can be made available for the manufacture of paper.

The London Athenæum, in view of recent false publications of news, calls for a censorship of the press.

Twenty-eight of the Alumni of the Andover Theological Seminary died last year, at an average age of fifty-nine and one-half years.

The widow of Beranger's publisher has made an awkward bequest to the City of Paris, in the shape of the poet's bed-room furniture and effects.

D'Arcy McGee, it is stated, has been threatened with assassination if he makes his promised disclosures concerning the Fenian organization in Canada.

The Paris newspapers are out of humor with the Americans and English because they do not allow their machinery in the exposition to work on Sunday.

The Shakers at New Lebanon were overrun with visitors at their service, Sunday. Three ladies who took crying babies to church with them were compelled by the worshippers to retire.

A huge shark of the species known as "swindle-tailed," was taken in a net off Swampscott, on Friday morning, by some of the Swampscott fishermen. It was about fifteen feet long, and of a light blue or slate color.

Minnie Tracey, a beautiful courtesan of St. Louis, excited the jealousy of her lover last week, and he attempted to kill her by drawing a penknife across her throat. The wound was not fatal, and, at his request, the girl forgave him.

Charles H. Beesen, a wealthy merchant of Uniontown, Pa., went to Pittsburg on Wednesday, got intoxicated wandered into a paper mill at night, drank a quantity of sulphuric acid, or blue vitriol, and died on the following day in great agony.

Admiral Farragut is in rank the highest naval officer afloat. His station corresponds to that of Lord High Admiral in England, an office which has not been filled since 1828, and which can only be filled by a prince of the royal blood. Prince Alfred is now training for it.

Satanti, chief of the Kiowas, was recently presented by Hancock with a full outfit of a Major General. A few days later the chief, with a few of his braves, rode up in plain sight of Fort Dodge, and, presuming on his rank, gobbled up the Government herd of cattle and decamped.

The ties for the Kansas Pacific railroad have to be transported from the eastern border, and are estimated to cost, laid down, one dollar each. Fuel used by the locomotives has all to be transported two hundred miles. As the road progresses westward this expense will increase, for as yet no good coal has been discovered.

Galignani tells a good story of a brace of desperate duelists who placed a bottle of sulphuric acid between them and threw high dice to decide which one should have the pleasure of pouring the contents down the throat of his antagonist. The unlucky fellow swallowed the draught and to the astonishment of the other, smoked his pipe, and asked for more. The seconds had substituted arrack, and the affair was arranged.

America Discovered by the Chinese.

It is likely to be demonstrated that the Chinese visited this continent a little before the Northmen. A San Francisco paper asserts that the first white explorers of Oregon found a tradition among all the Indians of that region that a vessel which, from the desciption, is supposed to have been a Chinese junk, was found imbedded in the mud of the Columbia river. Here is chance for Chinese antiquaries. Let them put in a claim for the earliest discovery of the continent, and fight it out on the line with the Royal Society of Copenhagen. The Chinese will doubtless send over Prof. Ching-a-ling-ching-a-ling-a-a-chi-chumchi to look after Mongolian inscriptions on the sandstone of the Columbia.

German Immigration to Tennessee and Kentucky.—A number of planters of Montgomery and adjoining counties in Tennessee held a meeting at Clarksville last Monday to consider the best means of encouraging immigration to that section. Arrangements were made for raising a fund to be devoted to the objects in view. Mr. J. B. Killebrew was appointed an agent to proceed to Germany for the purpose of offering inducements to the people of that thrifty nation to make their homes in Montgomery end Robertson counties, Tenn., as well as Todd, Christian, and Logan counties in this State. The plan is to induce Genmans with a small amount of capital to come first. These will find no difficulty in securing lands at a very cheap rate. The poorer or laboring classes will be sure to follow, after which there need be no fear that the fields of the counties thus benefitted will remain longer untilled, nor that the labor supply will be restricted and embarrassed by political complications. The movement is one resulting from the necessities of the times, and is not speculative in its nature.

ASTROLOGY.
THE WORLD ASTONISHED
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
Madame H. A. PERRIGGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair. Address,
